A lovely short well written book which can be read as a series description of a series of wild swims, a record of a recovery from mental illness or both. However, the picture of a swimmer wearing a woolly hat should tell you all you need to know about all-season wild swimming in the British Isles.

Dip: Wild Swims from the Borderlands is as beautiful and uplifting as it is visceral. From shivering conversations with other wild swimmers I know that many of us have struggled with physical or mental illness.
